MOROCCO

There are no dedicated suicide prevention hotlines in Morocco.

There is however a mobile app called "Stop Silence", which you can download on your phone. Using the app, you can chat anonymously with a volunteer trained by Moroccan and international mental health specialists.

If you are in a life-threatening situation and require counselling, you can always contact the Embassy's line to be diverted to an Australian-based counselling service or contact your nearest hospital emergency line. You can download a list of hospitals from: <https://morocco.embassy.gov.au/rbat/rbat.html>
